

Fit4Future Summer School 2024

“Powering tomorrow: Doing research for a sustainable energy transition”

Hybrid format:
Online and onsite
sessions

About the Summer School

Are you a PhD/ postgraduate student researching on energy transition who wants to make a difference?

Join us at the Fit4Future Summer School 2024, where you'll have the opportunity to connect with other like-minded researchers, hear from inspiring speakers, and participate in engaging workshops on various topics around understanding, assessing and designing a sustainable energy transition.

REGISTRATION via Google form

<https://forms.gle/bMADFZtr5gEsATir7>

DEADLINE APRIL 26th 2024

CONTACT & INFO rabi@b-tu.de

Scan for more information

DATES IN 2024

Online sessions CET
24 May 13:00-15:00
17 June 14:00-18:00
05 July 14:00-18:00

Onsite sessions
in Cottbus, Germany
10-12 September

Onsite sessions
in Poznan, Poland
12-13 September

Optional writing retreat
at Haus des Wandels/
Steinhöfel
14-15 September

REGISTER NOW

Brandenburg
University of Technology
Cottbus - Senftenberg

The summer school is free of charge. It is organised by the Faculty 5 for Business, Law and Social Sciences of Brandenburg University of Technology in cooperation with Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Faculty of Sociology and the Poznań University of Technology.